Former Saugerties Policeman Receives Sentence for Forgery

John LaVelle, former Saugerties policeman and dog catcher of the town of Saugerties, was sentenced to Clinton State Prison at Dannemora this morning by County Judge Frederick G. Traver on a plea of guilty to a charge of forgery, third degree, growing out of the falsification of records as a dog catcher of the town.

There were six indictments pending and LaVelle entered a plea of guilty to indictment No. 1966, a charge of forgery, third degree.

It was charged by the indictment that LaVelle had changed or altered a bill for catching and killing stray dogs after it had been approved by the officials for payment.

Judge Traver sentenced LaVelle to a term of from 1½ years to 3 years at hard labor at Clinton State Prison.

A. J. Cook, who had appeared for Mr. LaVelle, was engaged in court in New York city and Francis T. Murray appeared in court when the indictment was moved for trial and the matter over with Mr. LaVelle and the court and district attorney. A fifteen minute recess was taken and when court re-convened District Attorney Cleon B. Murray again moved the indictment for trial. Counsel for LaVelle asked permission to withdraw the former plea of not guilty and enter a plea of guilty to the charge.

In reply to the usual questions LaVelle said he was 46 years old and had been a police officer at Saugerties. He was born in Kingston and resided in Saugerties.

District Attorney Cleon B. Murray stated that this was one of a series of indictments growing out of LaVelle's activities as dog catcher of the town of Saugerties. The particular charge in the indictment moved was forgery, third degree, charging alteration of bills after approval.

Judge Traver stated that he was being placed in a very embarrassing position. While prosecuting officer of the county and while LaVelle was a peace officer at Saugerties very valuable service had been rendered by the defendant to the county in several matters. However, this did not excuse the present law violation but the court stated that he would take into consideration the previous good record of defendant. The term of 1½ to 3 years in prison was pronounced.

For some time huge bills were presented by LaVelle as dog catcher for payment. The matter finally came to the attention of Supervisor Lamourse of Saugerties who requested an investigation. It developed that after bills for catching and disposing of stray dogs had been approved by the proper officials, alterations were made and the bills much increased were presented for payment. Bills from LaVelle amounted to more than all other dog bills in the county and the investigation disclosed that the dog catcher in Saugerties had been doing a very profitable business.

Due to the absence of Attorney Palmer Canfield, who is engaged in Federal court in New York city, the alleged "dope ring" cases were not moved for trial and there were no other cases ready for trial at this time. The court adjourned until next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Civil matters will be taken up next week but District Attorney Murray will also move additional criminal cases for disposition next week.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SEEK TO SAVE FARM BILL

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP).—Sponsors of the emergency farm relief plan fought in the house today to rescue their bill from the weight of overruling amendments.

First off they faced a motion on which the life of the whole allotment plan hinged, a move by Representative Cannon (D., Mo.) to strike out the emergency clause.

Cannon announced his support of the farm relief plan and then made his motion simply to gain speaking time. But objection was entered to his withdrawal and a vote was in order. Usually, however, the house hesitates to determine the fate of a bill before finishing with all amendments.

Lehman to Study Education Costs

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 11 (AP).—New York state's education bill, which was expanded by the State Board of Regents last year was $117,000,000, came under the scrutiny today of Governor Herbert H. Lehman and the legislative leaders.

Breaking away from established precedent, under which the Regents have not hitherto been asked by a state executive to discuss their expenditures, Mr. Lehman on Monday summoned the twelve Regents to meet with him and the legislative leaders at noon today to confer on education costs.

The governor has expressed to the legislature his belief that there should be a "reasonable reduction in the general cost of education."

Saying he was going into the conference "with an open mind," Governor Lehman proposed to discover for himself, as part of his efforts to prepare a minimum state budget, where there can be reductions or eliminations in the education costs. He has expressed opposition to "ruthless" reduction in expenditures.

The governor is particularly interested in the matter of state-aid to education, which last year accounted for $103,000,000 of the $117,000,000 the state turned over to local governmental units for their assistance. He pointed out in his inauguration speech that state-aid to education could only profitably be reduced if there were a corresponding reduction in local educational budgets, otherwise the curtailment in state assistance would be reflected in increased local property taxes.

Ambushed Gunmen Attack Rich Couple

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 11 (AP).—Mystery of a vicious attack by gunmen on Ralph H. Chapman, 67-year-old investment broker, and his 84-year-old aunt, Miss Etta L. Alford, in the driveway of his home, was heightened today when the broker refused to aid police.

"If I knew I was going to die, I would tell something," Chapman told investigating officers while being treated for gunshot wounds. Informed that his wounds would not be fatal, Chapman, a former Pasadena city councilman, declined to make any additional statement on this second attempt on his life within five months. His aunt's condition was serious.

Chapman and Miss Alford were the targets of a hail of lead from snarled shotguns and possibly revolvers last night. The assailant, or assailants, had hidden in the shrubbery bordering the driveway. Miss Alford was wounded in the body and face, a load of buckshot lodging in the back of her head. She was given an even chance by physicians to recover. Chapman was shot in the face several times, his condition, however, was said to be not critical.

Baby Born to Mrs. Libby H. Reynolds

Philadelphia, Jan. 11 (AP).—Libby Holman Reynolds' new baby boy, Dr. Norris W. Vaus said today, weighed three and one-half pounds at birth and is being kept in an incubator.

Both mother and child, said Dr. Vaux, the obstetrician who attended Mrs. Reynolds, are doing "very well."

The child, heir to a large share of his father's tobacco fortune, was born at 8:48 o'clock last night in the Pennsylvania Hospital. He came as a surprise to outsiders for announcements from the actress' home had said announcement was expected early in February.

Hospital authorities who announced the baby's birth said both mother and child were doing "satisfactorily."

Arrival of the much-discussed infant recalled the death of his father, Smith Reynolds, 20-year-old heir to one-fourth of the R. J. Reynolds tobacco fortune. Smith was found fatally shot at Reynolds, his family's palatial home in Winston-Salem, N. C., last July 6 after a gay birthday party.

Disorders Stir 6 Widely Scattered Nations of World

By The Associated Press

Military measures were invoked today in four out of six countries disturbed this week by rioting or open revolt. In one of the others—the Irish Free State—military action was threatened to quell political fighting.

Revolts continued today in Spain and Alwar, India, and disturbances which took a heavy toll in casualties also occurred yesterday in Germany, Argentina and Cuba. The situation in Argentina continued doubtful.

The Spanish republican government ordered martial law for provinces where further outbreaks were attempted. Since Sunday, 40 persons have been killed and more than 100 injured in the revolt of Spanish Syndicalists and Communists.

One thousand British soldiers arrived in Alwar, native state of northern India, where Moslems were in revolt. The rebels were holding a district against native state troops.

President Augustin Justo adjourned the Argentine congress for the duration of internal disorders. The government retained extraordinary powers under a state of siege decree, similar to martial law, except that civil courts function. Republics relayed through Santiago, Chile, listed eight persons as having been killed in clashes yesterday and Sunday in Argentina.

A fight between police and rebels was reported last night in Vincennes, a Buenos Aires suburb, and rebels were reported ousted Sunday from San Carlos, in Corrientes, after having held the town one day.

Seven persons were wounded in five cities in Cuba yesterday before military forces took over control. Another clash occurred between National Socialists and Communists in Berlin yesterday. Many persons were injured and police were met with a volley of gunfire before the fight was broken up. The anniversary of what the Nationalists call the "shameful" Versailles Treaty was observed, in German cities and by German populations in Danzig, Poland and other places.

In the Irish Free State, where more than 20 persons were injured in political fights Sunday, General Owen O'Duffy, chief of the Civil Guards, said he would call out the army if other efforts to maintain peace failed.

Nominations close today for the Irish elections January 24. About 250 candidates were expected to contest for seats in the Dail Eireann.

COURT RULES MRS. SIMPSON MUST DIE FOR MURDER

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 11 (AP).—Only executive clemency now can save Mrs. Mary Simpson, young wife of R. J. Simpson, a Cortland county farmer, from the electric chair for the murder of Mrs. Simpson's year old baby.

Affirmation by the Court of Appeals yesterday of the conviction of the couple of first degree murder closed the last legal door except that leading to the office of Governor Herbert H. Lehman on the hopes of Simpson and his 22 year old wife. The date of their execution will be fixed within a few days by the high court, and unless Governor Lehman intervenes they will die in Sing Sing prison.

Mrs. Simpson is the first white woman to be sentenced to die in New York since Ruth Snyder and Judd Gray were executed in 1928 for the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband.

The Rev. Charles B. Smith, who is serving his eighth year as pastor of the Wurts Street Baptist Church, presented his resignation at the close of the service Sunday morning. The letter of resignation was read by Floyd W. Powell, one of the trustees. At a congregational meeting presided over by Dwight McEntee, chairman of the board of trustees, it was decided to defer action on the matter to Thursday evening, January 19, when a congregational meeting will be held.

Conditions in the Wurts Street Church are said to be most harmonious and it is reported that there has been a storm of protest against Pastor Smith's contemplated move.

The Rev. Mr. Smith when interviewed this morning said that he viewed with great regret the prospect of severing his connection with the church and retiring to the home near Utica, which he purchased about a year ago. He has been getting ready for a year or more to retire, after having given 53 years of his life to the ministry, and feels that there are compelling reasons for the step he has taken.

Since then the two Democratic commissioners, Messrs. Harry Kaplan and Edward Moran, got together and decided to elect Kaman to the position, which was done.

Dr. Chester B. Van Gaasbeck and Dr. Jack Lehner were appointed physicians of the fire department.

Wire Stealers Have Sentences Reduced To 30 Days In Jail

Four men involved in a wire stealing episode in the town of Ulster last spring were brought to the county jail to serve out modified sentences of 30 days each.

Last spring after a severe snow storm the New York Telephone Company's lines along the Plank road were badly damaged and wires blown to the ground. The telephone company officials reported that wire was being taken. State troopers were sent to investigate and Sergeant James Cunningham later arrested four men on a charge of stealing wire. While driving along the road the sergeant observed the men about the line and apprehended them. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Webber of the town of Ulster, and Judge Webber sentenced them to 90 days each in the county jail on their plea of guilty.

The four men were Raymond Smith, Fred and George Zates and Fred Brink. After serving four days in the county jail they took an appeal to the county court on the grounds that the sentence imposed in Judge Webber's court had been excessive.

The men were released from jail pending argument of the appeal and in November of last year the appeal was argued before County Judge Frederick G. Traver by N. LeVan Haver for defendants. At that time he asked the court to reduce the sentence to five days each. Former Assistant District Attorney J. Edward Conway opposed the request on the grounds that such a sentence would be ridiculous. After argument Mr. Conway agreed that perhaps the 90 days would be excessive but that five days would be ridiculous.

Judge Traver reduced or modified the sentence in each case to 30 days in the county jail. Sergeant Cunningham was directed to pick up the men and bring them to the jail to serve out the modified sentence.

It is understood that efforts will be made to have the sentences reduced by the court still further.

All poultrymen are cordially invited to the meeting on Tuesday. Dr. Heuser will speak on "Feeding the Laying Flock" but will devote most of the time to answering questions. In this way individual problems in regard to feeding poultry will be answered, which might otherwise not be discussed. Willis Myers of Saugerties will be chairman of the meeting on Tuesday. The policy is to select a chairman for each meeting at the previous meeting of the club.

Ellenville Press Again Changes Hands

The Ellenville Press has again changed hands, Irving T. McNally having purchased the plant and business from Charles H. Benedict. The new owner has leased from E. Gordon Jansen the lower floor of the old Rockwell property on Canal street, for the past two campaigns used as Republican headquarters, and will move the plant to that location. The old armory building on Market street, for some 40 years past the home of the Press, was sold some months ago to Jack Bernkrant of Ellenville and later was by him resold to Abraham Rothkopf.

Both seller and buyer in this latest deal are sons of former owners of the Press. Started in 1870 by Thomas E. Benedict, later public printer under President Cleveland, and his brother, Gilbert H. Benedict, it was afterward taken over and conducted for some years by another brother, the late Louis H. Benedict. The latter sold it to William C. McNally in 1932, who ran it until 1932, when he resold it to L. R. Benedict, the former owner, his son, Charles H. Benedict being associated with him. Later, in 1925, E. C. Hommer, Jr., purchased the paper and conducted it until his death in 1929. The next owners were George A. Lager, A. J. Homan and H. F. Schue of Liberty, who ran the paper for a year or more and then sold it in October, 1930, to John S. Mearns. Mr. Mearns published the paper until November last, when it was taken over by Charles H. Benedict, who has since conducted it.

Chinese Prepare For Crucial Battle

Peking, China, Jan. 11 (AP).—Several thousand Chinese troops clung desperately today to a portion of Chumenkow, or "The Pass of Nine Gates," in China's Great Wall, against the concerted attack of Japanese cavalry, infantry, artillery and bombing planes.

The outcome may prove decisive in China's struggle to maintain possession of the rich province of Jehol, to the north of the gateway and famous as the retreat of the old Chinese emperors.

General Ho Chu-Kuo, who was ousted from the Chinese garrison of Shanhaiwan by the Japanese January 3, issued orders to the retreating Chinese troops to hold their ground.

Chinese officials predicted that today's fighting would bring out the full force of the Japanese drive against the Chinese defenders.

Psychiatrists' Dean Dead In Baltimore

Baltimore, Jan. 11 (AP).—Following an illness of six days of bronchitis which developed into pneumonia, Dr. Edward Nathaniel Brush, 50-year-old Dean of American Psychiatrists, died last night at his home at Mount Washington, a residential section of Baltimore.

A real estate deal at Utica, N. Y., started him in his work in psychiatry. Finding his office sold out soon after he began his practice of medicine, Dr. Brush was given a temporary position at the State Insane Asylum at Utica in 1878.

He became greatly interested in the patients, paying more attention to them than to his work in pathology. Later he went to the Pennsylvania Hospital's department of insane and in 1891 became first superintendent of the Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital near Baltimore.

Dr. Brush retired from the superintendency in 1920 and also from the faculty of the University of Maryland Medical Department. He was editor of the American Journal of Psychiatry from 1904 to 1931.

Horticultural Show to Have Fine Program According to Plans

The program at the Ritz Theatre in connection with the Horticultural Show to be held at the Old Armory in Kingston, on January 25, 26 and 27, is said to be the best program prepared in recent years. In addition to taking part in such a fine program, the Fruit Growers of Ulster county are asked to cooperate and make the meeting a success. This is the first time in 30 years that this show has been held outside of Foughkeepsie. Its future location depends largely on the success of this year's show.

The program Wednesday morning starts at 10 o'clock with an invocation. President Walter Clarke's address and the report of the secretary-treasurer. From 10:30 to 12 there will be an insect and disease forum conducted by Dr. P. J. Parrott of the Geneva Experiment Station and Dr. W. D. Mills. C. Hopper of Cornell and M. C. Burritt, member of the Public Service Commission, who will talk on "Which Transportation System—Railroads, Trucks or Both."

Friday afternoon, January 27, will be a Small Fruit Session particularly for Hudson Valley counties. The speakers will include Richard Wellington of Geneva, George W. Darron of Washington, D. C., also G. L. Slate and Dr. W. H. Rankin of the Geneva Experiment Station.

CONGRESS EXPECTED TO REJECT ARMS PROPOSAL

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP).—Congressional rejection of another recommendation by President Hoover—no dealing with arms embargoes—today seemed extremely likely.

The President asked that the long-pending international arms convention be ratified or that he be given authority to declare munitions embargoes as a means of preventing military conflicts.

But as the senate foreign relations committee was called together to take up the request, Chairman Borah recalled that the convention, signed in Geneva in 1925, had been put aside by the committee without action years ago.

From a Republican representative—Fish of New York—came a sharp attack on Mr. Hoover's special message. He described it as the "weakest and vaguest" of all the papers the President has sent to congress. He predicted no such legislation would be approved.

ASK A MILLION QUESTIONS.

World Almanac for 1933 Has the Facts to Answer Them.The World Almanac for 1933 is here hand-in-hand with the New Year and as heartily welcomed. It is the forty-eighth annual issue of America's indispensable reference book, handy and easy to consult for all its nearly 1,000 pages, and edited as for the past eleven years by Robert Hunt Lyman, who says it contains a million facts well ordered and will answer a million questions.Its wealth of figures will give any reader firm foundation for argument that reconstruction will come, and when confidence returns renewed prosperity will follow. For these figures from official reports, boiled down to essentials, set forth the great resources and power of our country in agriculture, mining, manufacturing, commerce, finance, transportation, education, the arts, invention and scientific progress—
what you will—and comparative data from the other countries of the world. Local newsdealers sell it.A SEAT

TOPIC FOR HIS LECTUREProfessor A. W. Risley has announced the subject of his first lecture on Thursday afternoon of this week at the Y. W. C. A. and his audience will be most eager to hear his interpretation of "Our Changing Age". With first hand knowledge of conditions in this country as well as those abroad, he is fitted to bring a message that will be very helpful and instructive. This subject will be of vital interest to both men and women of the community and it is hoped that there will be a large gathering at 3:30 on Thursday. Members of the following clubs who have not yet secured their tickets may do so at the door: Sorosis Club, 20th Century Club, The Monday Club, The Atherton Club and the Young Married Women's Club.Woodrow Wilson called Carter Glass of Virginia from his seat in Congress to accept a cabinet post as secretary of the treasury.Many observers believe Franklin D. Roosevelt will do the same thing, although it has been reported Glass would decline an offer if made because of Senate duties and impaired health.Author of the act which created the federal reserve bank system and high ranking Democrat on the Senate banking and currency committee, the 74-year-old wiry senator is one of the country's recognized authorities on finance.It was 1899 before Glass entered politics, and that was largely by accident. He was an editor and publisher when an unsolicited nomination to the Virginia Senate was thrust upon him. In 1902 he was nominated for representative in Congress without his knowledge. In1913 President Wilson asked him the treasury portfolio out of a clear sky.And again, a little more than a year later, the governor of Virginia appointed him to the U. S. Senate to fill a vacancy caused by death.
He has been re-elected three times since.Small of stature, wary and ap-preensive, he complies with his extensive knowledge of finance a vigorous mode of expression that makes him both admired and feared."I'm working and Smoking overtime—hence a Milder Cigarette"WHEN I work hard, I usually smoke more; and when I smoke more, I usually work harder—and that's why I want a cigarette that's milder."We use in Chesterfield Cigarettes mild, ripe Domestic and Turkish tobaccos which have been aged and re-aged.These good tobaccos in Chesterfield are used in the right proportions—that's a very important matter.These good tobaccos in Chesterfield are blended and cross-blended—welded together; that, too, helps to make a milder cigarette with better taste.

THEY'RE Milder — THEY TASTE BETTER

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 11 (AP).—The stock market continued to work upward today, reaching its highest level since mid-November, although gains were moderate and several leading shares turned reactionary under weight of scattered selling. Activity continued to be dominated largely by professionals, but some wire houses reported a broad-based public demand. Earlier trading was considerably more animated than yesterday. Rallying as a group, appeared more popular than utilities and industrials, although motor stocks moved forward fractionally in fairly heavy turnover.

Gains of a point or so were made by Du Pont, Goodyear, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Ashland and General Motors and Foreign Power. American Motors and Nash added sizeable fractions to their prices, while Chrysler gained slightly. Fractional gains also were made by Lackawanna, Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, United Corp., U. S. Steel, United Aircraft, American Can, Allied Chemical, Radio, American Telephone and Cable, Harvester and Westinghouse Electric were slightly reactionary while Lackawanna Corp. and Corn Products reacted about a point.

Regular quarterly dividends were declared by Westinghouse and General Electric. Westinghouse Electric announced a distribution of the half of one-half share of Radio stock for every one share of both Westinghouse preferred and common.

Trade news, other than routine reports, was scanty. Foreign copper prices firmed a shade to 5.15 cents a pound against 5.05 to 5.12 cents on Tuesday.

Kingston Symphony Orchestra Tickets

Tickets for the Kingston Symphony Orchestra concert will be placed on sale at Van's Drug Store on John street, Winter's Music Store on Wall street, O'Reilly's News Store, Broadway, and the Connelly Drug Store, Broadway, on Thursday. The Board of directors of the Symphony Society will be glad to receive the names of additional patrons in the meantime and those wishing to support the society in this way, by purchasing a patron's ticket including five admissions to each concert (tickets transferrable) at the same price for each admission as that of the single tickets, are asked to notify Arthur C. Connelly, telephone 937, not later than Monday, January 16, in order that the names of all patrons may be announced. Patron's tickets are being mailed today. The first concert will be given on the evening of Monday, January 23.

The public rehearsal of this concert will be held at the High School on Monday afternoon, January 22, at four o'clock. All of the children of the city of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades whether at public or parochial or private school are being invited to attend this rehearsal of the full program. They will be admitted without charge but each grade from each school will be accompanied by one or two teachers. Already a member of the society has visited Public School Nos. 2, 4 and 6 and the other grade schools as well as the High School will be visited and told something about the concert, the program and what a symphony orchestra and concert are. The school children offer, as always, keenly interested audiences to the representative from the Symphony Society.

Inasmuch as one of the outstanding aims of the society is to interest and educate school children in the world's most beautiful music, parents are requested to send their children to this and subsequent public rehearsals of the symphony concert.

This will give at least one point on the scale which is correct. If the thermometer reads high enough, place the bulb in boiling water. The reading should be 212 degrees Fahrenheit or 100 degrees centigrade.

The members of the Kingston Shriners' Association were very much gratified to receive the following letter with check from the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, as it proves that the policemen of our city are deeply interested in the welfare of our boys and girls:

Kingston Patrolmen's Association — of the City of Kingston, N. Y.
January 9, 1933.

Mr. Frederick L. Van Deusen, President, Kingston Shriners' Association, 131 Pine St., Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Sir:
I am enclosing herewith check and would appreciate having this organization included in your list of contributors for your ball to be held in the new armory on the night of January 20. We know the ball you are sponsoring will command the support of the public at large to make it a financial success. I hope you will accept our best wishes for the continuance of the humanitarian work in which your organization has already excelled.

Very truly yours,
PETER KERESMAN, President,

Kingston Shriners' Association,
Fred L. Van Deusen, President,
Kingston, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Van Deusen:
No institution in Kingston makes a deeper appeal to the sympathy and support of all our people, than does the Industrial Home.

The care and training of children in character and intelligence are carried on so efficiently and under such happy and wholesome surroundings that it is quite impossible to estimate the value of the work the Industrial Home is doing.

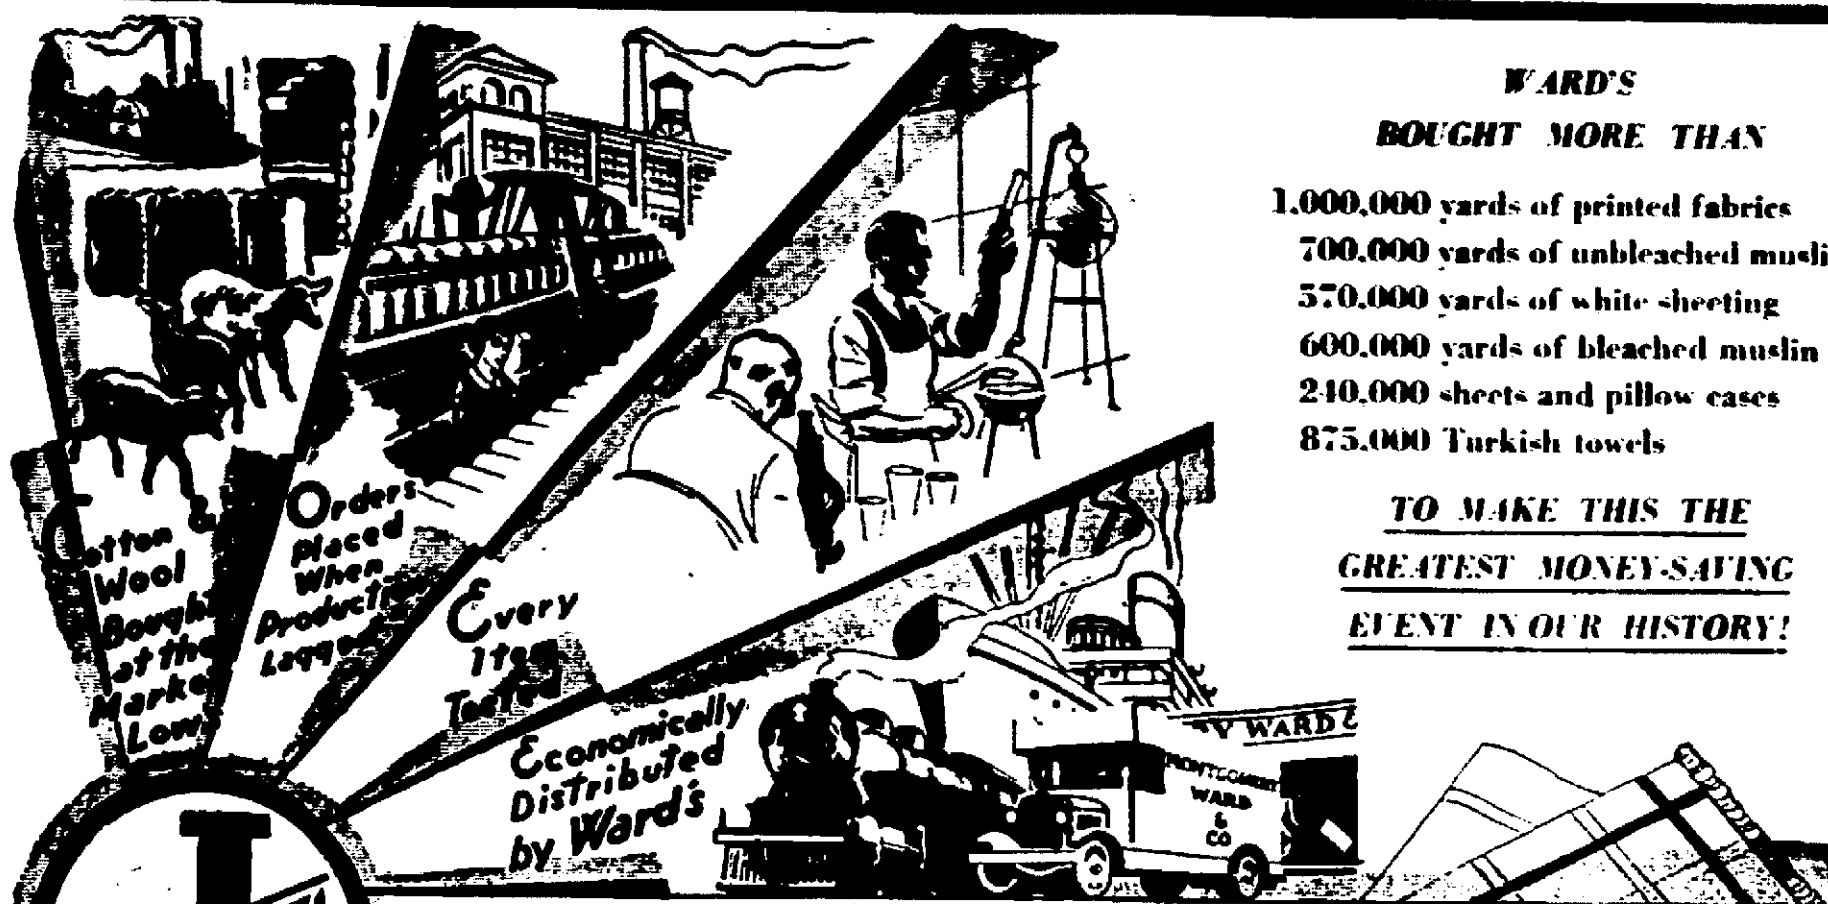

That the Kingston Shriners' Association should so generously and enthusiastically devote the entire proceeds of the ball to be held on the evening of January 20th to the Industrial Home, calls for the support of us all.

You are doing a magnificent thing in aiding the splendid work being done at the Industrial Home.
Very truly yours,
F. B. SEELEY.

7709. An attractive style that lends itself well to combinations of materials or color. As pictured, black velvet was used for the "jumper," and skirt and crimson crepe for the blouse section, sleeves and collar. One could combine brown with tea rose—or with beige, or black with green. The jumper may be omitted as shown in the small front view. The dress could be of checked or plaid woolen and the jumper of plain woolen or velvet.

Designed in 5 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. Size 38 will require 3 1/2 yards of 39 inch material for skirt and jumper together with 1 1/2 yard for the waist section, if made as in large view. If made in monotone it will require 5 1/2 yards. The dress alone will require 4 yards. The jumper alone will require 1 1/2 yard. The width of the skirt at the lower edge with fullness extended is 2 1/2 yards.

Tarantula Bite Not Dangerous. The bite of the tarantula is painful but not dangerous.

SHOKAN.

Shokan, Jan. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmendorf spent a few days very enjoyably in New York city recently.

Fred Weeks, Jr., who is engaged in surveying work for the state near Ellenville, was a visitor at his home in the west end last Sunday.

The new Lyons garage in the lower village is practically completed. The contractors got the roof on before the snow came and thus are in a position to finish up the interior work without further delay on account of the weather.

Mrs. Isabelle Lopes has returned to New York city after spending a month at the Nadal homestead on the heights. Little Carmen Lopez, who stayed with her mother during the latter's sojourn in Shokan, is again at the home of her aunt, Mrs. F. Nadal, of Van Steenburgh road.

Burris Wheat, local truckman and coal dealer, is making trips to Pennsylvania mines for coal. Morris Rose accompanied Mr. Wheat on one of the trips last week.

There was a pretty fair thickness of ice on Temple's Pond, or Lake Kenosia, before the storm of Monday enough for a starter on the season's ice crop. Folks here have decided that they can buy artificial ice from the dealers about as cheap as they can house a crop from the pond, so what's the use of worrying about whether or not a cutting will materialize this winter. After all the staving about the slim prospects for ice last winter, it finally came and was of pretty good quality and thickness at that.

George Rieker, the hustling star route mail carrier, took a day off on Monday. George must have had a hunch that snow was due to fall in northern Ulster and Delaware the fore part of the week.

The Rev. Charles W. Kinney preached in the Shokan Dutch Reformed Church on Sunday, January 11, 1891. The weather on that day was damp, to say the least. It rained nearly all day, while at night there was a session of thunder and lightning. The Rev. Mr. Kinney was the new pastor of the church, and on the 25th a reception for the dominie and his family was held at the parsonage, two doors above the church on the hill road to Boiceville. The Rev. Mr. Kinney was one of the most likeable men who ever occupied the pulpit of a local church. He was greatly interested in Sunday school work and was made president of the town association shortly after taking up his duties in Shokan.

Morris Rose is employed by Elmer Bedell, the well known fire-wood dealer of Church Hill. Mr. Bedell is getting a lot of stove wood piled up for future delivery to his many customers in these parts.

Isaiah Shults of Glenford was numbered among the callers in the village last Sunday.

Albert Lapoce of Ashokan, who is spending the winter in New York city and vicinity, is keeping his flock of chickens at Charles Clapper's in the town of Hurley. Mr. Lapoce sold off a large part of his flock of pullets before leaving town.

Not much is generally known here about the car that burned up along the north boulevard this side of Temple's Pond last week. Nor was much left of the machine, judging by the charred remnants still lying in the ditch. Those who saw the blaze say that the fire appeared to come out of the rear end of the car.

FROM THE LAND OF GORGEOUS SILK

STOCKING RUNS

Miss Mah Li Kim, talented Chinese beauty, is now studying art in New York City. Her father is the manager of a large silk firm. Like all high caste Chinese, she is a connoisseur of silks and knows the best way to care for them...

"My father has taught me how to judge silks and care for them," says this slim, exotic girl of the Orient. "Silk—seemingly so fragile—is really a tough, strong fibre when it is new, because of its elasticity."

"Chinese women teach their servants to wash silk the way that preserves this very precious elasticity—with Lux."

"My 2-Minute Way"

"Would you like to know my method for washing silk stockings? It's easy, and it doubles their wear."

"I take one teaspoon of Lux for each pair, add lukewarm water to Lux, press the ends very gently through the stockings, rinse well."

Thrifty American girls, too, wash stockings this 2-minute Lux way each night. It cuts down stocking runs, because when the silk keeps its elastic quality, it gives under strain—doesn't break. Cake-soap rubbing and soaps containing harmful alkali too often destroy elasticity. Avoid them! Anything safe in water is safe in Lux.

Beautiful Li Kim has many rich modern dresses and evening robes, as well as charming American costumes. "In Chinese homes, as in America," she says, "Lux is standard for washing silks."

Mrs. H. N. Aikens washed 468 pieces with just 1 box of LUX!

68 pairs silk stockings
68 pieces silk hosiery
84 pairs socks
72 pairs child's socks
26 child's undergarments
64 pieces table linen
126 handkerchiefs
3 baby's sweaters

mostly. It was a bad spot for an accident of the kind as there are no houses within a quarter of a mile.

Raymond Osterhout of Brown Station has resumed his duties with the Department of Water Supply, after having been confined to the house with an attack of influenza. Mrs. Osterhout also was ill with grip but is now around again.

Joseph DeWitt of Cool Broese Hill, who has not been able to get around much since selling his old gray horse, called on his friend, Golden VanBenschoten, of Hemlock Knoll on Monday. These two old timers, between them can recall every person and event in Olive over a period of 50 years or more. Joe and Van could collaborate on an authoritative history of those provincial tripe—Olive, Shandaken and Woodstock. Such a book would prove mighty interesting reading as well as constitute an invaluable addition to local historical treasures.

On January 11, 1894, the death took place at her home here of Mrs. Clarence Markle. There was a large attendance at the funeral, held on the 12th and conducted by the Rev. George Niemeyer, pastor of the Shokan Reformed Church. Mrs. Markle was the mother of Reuben Markle of Kingston, Sol Markle of Flatbush, and Ethel and Jennie Markle. The family home was the farm on the west branch of the Butterkill now known as the Sentinillo-sky place.

Mr. and Mrs. George VonderOsten returned last week from a trip to New York city.

"The Odor of Sanctity" The expression "the odor of sanctity" is found near the end of the poem called "The Jackdaw of Rheims," one of the Ingoldsbys legends. Thomas Ingoldsbys was the pseudonym of Rev. Richard Harris Barham, who wrote these legends in the years 1837 to 1840.

FASHIONS by ELEANOR GUNN

Fashionable Furs With a Future

It's Sophisticated to Be Simple

DISCREET IS NO NAME FOR IT

New York—If this is not a picture of a thoroughly practical respecting sort of dress I never saw one. It's ladylike to the nth degree, just the type for the young matron or business girl who has made all manner of good resolutions about her clothes from now on.

The yoke, plus a scarf neckline, is a nice idea. Necklines are striving to retain their lofty attitude, but some of them are slipping back into their old ways—flattering ways to most. We are being re-introduced to the bateau. Those who do not remember when necklines were widest from shoulder to shoulder and shallowest back and front, are being impressed by the agreeable qualities of such a line.

There is no law compelling us to give up the V neckline but we are getting plenty of encouragement to do so. There are square as well as the bateau or boat-shaped necks, and the usual off-side and cowl lines, as well as those that come boldly up to the neck and stop.

There is also an amusing tendency to turn one's collar around in a clerical gesture, fastening it at the back and having a bow, or some sort of frippery at that point. That is in line with the tendency to droll up the back of the dress, leaving the front of it plain. Never pass a frock by without turning around to see what surprises it may have for you. Backs are foremost—if you know what I mean. That hats operate on the same line has been apparent for some time. You may not rave over the up-in-the-back line, but it is admittedly good.

You have noticed, of course, that little brims have timidly returned, knowing that, while they are apt to be turned down, they are also just as apt to be turned up. There are far fewer skull caps and such this winter than last. Hats are so tiny that they hardly seem important enough to talk about. It's this diminutive tendency that spurs milliners on to make them doubly impressive by way of clever details or whatever trimming there is room for.

(Copyright, 1933, by Fairchild)

Here is a dress fashioned of Marcellane crepe, the skirt with pleats at the center front. The white or gaudie collar in layers has an interesting tailored cowl.

Lake Katrine-Asbury Grange Installation

Lake Katrine, Jan. 11.—On Monday evening, January 9, the Lake Katrine Grange met with the Asbury Grange for the installation of officers for the coming year.

There were eight members from New Paltz present, 27 from Asbury and 32 from Lake Katrine.

The Grange was opened in due form with worthy Master Relyea presiding. The business of the Grange was promptly attended to and the meeting was turned over to Brother Barnes of New Paltz, who had the authority of installing the officers. Brother Barnes then introduced his assisting staff as follows: Assistant, Sister Deyo and Sister Spray; regalia bearers, Sister Alexander and Sister Muller; accompanist, Sister Johnston.

In an interesting and instructive way Brother Barnes spoke of the Grange purposes and Grange work, impressing on all the beauty and advantages the Grange holds for all who are faithful and loyal patrons. The Grange was then prepared for the installing of the officers and Brother Barnes in his own impressive way installed the officers of Asbury and Lake Katrine Granges as follows:

Masters—Lake Katrine, Brother William Hookey; Asbury, Brother Relyea.

Overseers—Lake Katrine, Brother Roy Crosby; Asbury, Brother Sallie. Stewards—Lake Katrine, Brother D. Pariah; Asbury, Brother Clement. Lecturers—Lake Katrine, Sister Lachmann; Asbury, Brother Finger. Assistant stewards—Lake Katrine, Brother Munson; Asbury, Brother Hipp.

Chaplains—Lake Katrine, Brother E. Christian; Asbury, Sister Trumper.

Secretaries—Lake Katrine, Sister D. Pariah; Asbury, Sister Sallie.

Secretaries—Lake Katrine, absent; Asbury, Brother Trumper.

Ceres—Lake Katrine, Sister L. Hummel; Asbury, Sister Minkler.

Pomona—Lake Katrine, Sister L. Christian; Asbury, Sister Cotton.

Flora—Lake Katrine, Sister L. Ronson; Asbury, Sister Clement.

Gatekeepers—Lake Katrine, Brother Osterhout; Asbury, Brother E. Minkler.

Lady assistant stewards—Lake Katrine, Sister Munson; Asbury, Sister Hipp.

Executive committees—Lake Katrine, Brother Dederick; Asbury, Brother Trumper.

Following this impressive ceremony Master Relyea of Asbury called on the master of the Lake Katrine Grange, William Hookey, for a speech. Master Hookey responded with a few words of appreciation to both Granges and praised Brother Barnes for the splendid and impressive way in which he installed the officers. Master Hookey also stated that he would try his very best to fill the obligations of his office. Brother Barnes also responded with a few words, stating that it was a pleasure to be present at this meeting. Sister Hookey was called upon and graciously spoke a few words of appreciation.

Master Relyea called the meeting to a close and all were invited to the dining room, where a splendid supper, consisting of sliced fresh pork, potato salad, baked beans, bread and butter, pickles, jelly, cheese, cake and coffee, was enjoyed by all.

Master Hookey called upon the visiting Grangers to give the Asbury Grange a rising vote of thanks for their bountiful hospitality, which was responded to most heartily by all the patrons.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago.—The mousetrap which County Commissioner Frank J. Kane says the "Secret Six" used in an attempt to catch an alleged extortionist has the commissioner worked up to the resolution stage.

In its third "whereas" the resolution, introduced before the county board, says:

"Detectives employed by the so-called 'Secret Six' concealed in a hollow stump in the forest preserve an infernal machine composed of a mousetrap, explosive cap, flashlight, fuse, etc., which was exploded by the suspect, who then eluded the detectives of the so-called 'Secret Six'."

In particular the resolution asks that the next time the "Secret Six" crime fighting organization, sets a mousetrap for a crook that it first get a permit, put up a bond, and post guards so nobody but the criminal will be caught.

The detectives were looking for a man who had sent threatening letters to Solomon A. Smith, banker.

A Little Bee Did It.

Delray, Fla.—A bee did it. It flew right in the window of the automobile of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Johnson of Miami.

Johnson, who was driving, dodged. The car overturned.

Now the Johnsons are here recovering from injuries.

What's In a Name?

Waynesburg, Pa.—Here's one way of cutting taxes:

Freeport Borough, a community with no regular streets, changed its name to Freeport township, thereby gaining a reduced tax rate, and profiting from highway-aid programs not obtainable by boroughs.

Cats Got The Job.

St. Paul.—The cat's meow is an official sound in the new city hall and courthouse.

The city council agreed to let three cats prowling for rats and mice at no cost after rejecting an exterminating company's offer to use more scientific methods for $25 per month.

She Does, Does She?

Chicago.—Married men may be interested in knowing that Miss Hilda Rau of St. Louis thinks Milady needs anywhere from seven to forty-nine pairs of shoes for day and night use.

Stork Didn't Cooperate.

Chicago.—Because the stork didn't come to his house and isn't even expected, Robert Seiders of North Riverside, Ill., will have to spend 120 days in jail.

In his most doleful tone Seiders told Federal Judge George E. Q. Johnson about the happy event expected at the Seiders home and thereby won probation on a liquor charge. But investigators found that the stork wasn't coming.

Study Hard, Boys.

Urbana, Ill.—Prof. D. H. Carnahan probably will go down in history as the man who gave his students a perfect alibi for flunking their examinations.

He set special departmental examinations at the University of Illinois, for Friday, January 13.

Waste Labor.

Greensburg, Ind.—Some twenty years ago Thomas J. Shields of Adams, being 80 years old and not feeling so well, decided to build himself a coffin.

So he went to work, lined it with satin and altogether did a very nice job of it. Later, however, it was destroyed by fire, which wasn't so much of a misfortune, for yesterday Shields celebrated his 100th birthday.

He's in good health.

Pertle of Perambulation.

Knockville, Tenn.—Albert Greenberg has an idea that the next time there's an automobile crash he'd rather be in it than watch it.

He stood on a sidewalk and saw two cars collide. They leaped the curbing and hurled him twenty feet against a building, seriously injuring him.

The drivers of the automobiles were unhurt.

Dance at Cottekill.

Cottekill, Jan. 11.—The Cottekill Volunteer Fire Company will hold another of its popular old fashioned and modern dances in its new fire house on Wednesday evening, January 13. Music will be furnished by "Ford and Mike" from 8:30 to 12:30. The public is very cordially invited to attend. Proceeds will apply on purchase price of a motorized chemical outfit for the company.

WHAT SHOKAN.

West Shokan, Jan. 10.—The new year is starting off with a bang at the West Shokan Sunday school. At the regular session on Sunday afternoon there were 22 present. The musical selections were "Take Time to be Holy," "The Child of a King" and "In the Garden." The responsive reading was "The Prayer of Faith." Psalm 31. A most interesting discussion was presented on the topic, "Jesus Begins His Work," dealing with the calling of Simon Peter and Andrew, also James and John. There are now four new pupils enrolled in the Sunday school membership, Catherine Roe, Winifred and Charles Waldner and Catherine Wilcox. It is remarkable to have the children take such an active interest in Sunday school. There were eight boys and girls in the primary class on Sunday, while there were several grownups in the adult class. Next Sunday's topic will be "Jesus at Work." A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend these interesting sessions.

Tax time is here again and Collector Early North with his staff of assistants have begun collections. The first sitting took place Thursday at Clarence Eckert's store, Krumville. The succeeding collection days will take place on the following dates and designated places: Thursday, January 12, at Winchell's store, Shokan. Thursday, January 13, at Colange's store, West Shokan. Thursday, January 14, at DeSilva's store, Hockville, and lastly on Saturday, January 15, at I. O. O. F. Hall, Oil Bridge.

Norman Van Buren is getting his saw mill well nigh completely relocated adjacent his boulevard property at Broadhead. The mill is of heavy duty type, and one of the fastest mills in the market. The power is of the old reliable steam engine mounted on a portable boiler. Mr. Van Buren is a widely experienced mill man and his many friends wish him success in the relocating of his mill from the Schoharie lumber country.

While on the subject of saw mills it may be noted that Leroy Davis, well-known Olive Bridge farmer and cattleman, has purchased a portable gasoline powered saw mill which he is putting in operation on his property there.

Word received from the Knorr family of Flatbush, Brooklyn, well known summer residents here, is to the effect that Robert G. Knorr is ill in bed with grip. His many friends here hope for his speedy and complete recovery.

Rabbit hunters will welcome a nice tracking snow as bare ground hunting has now become a bit tiresome to these ardent adherers of the chase.

Beef killing is in general order about the community. On Monday afternoon Elwyn Davis, West Shokan Heights farmer, butchered a sleek well fattened cow for which a ready disposal awaited the surplus above family needs. At The Theatres

Kingston: "Strange Interlude."

Engine O'Neill's justly famous stage play of a beautiful, neurotic woman and her three lovers, their hatreds and their loves from youth to old age, are daringly translated in the talking screen in this unusual motion picture. At times the screen version is drawn out and tedious, but it is motion picture artistry from beginning to end. Many technical difficulties had to be overcome in the filming of this talkie masterpiece, for the characters speak their thoughts outwardly. Norma Shearer and Clark Gable in the leading roles are well cast and exceptional effective, especially Miss Shearer, whose performance must class her as one of the screen's great dramatic artists. This picture is without thrills or intense action, and the plot sways toward morbidness. The adaptation, direction and effects in the picture are superb. It is a radical departure from the usual type of motion picture, and must be seen to be appreciated. This picture will blast any criticism that the motion picture industry is void of originality, intelligence, and directorial genius. Others in the splendid cast are Robert Young, Alexander Kirkland, and Ralph Morgan.

Z. N. P. Quintet Beats Chocolateers, Fuller Girls Win

The Z. N. P. basketball team, loaded up for the occasion with special talent, including two Kingston High School varsity players, Johnny Zech and Vince Burns, scored its second victory of the season over the Chocolateers of Phil Kelly at White Eagle Hall, Tuesday night. Final score of the game was 37-35, the revamped Polish team winning by two fouls as indicated by the box score, which shows 11 fouls made good by the Z. N. P. and 9 by the Chocolateers. Each team made 26 points from the field.

Leading scorer of the battle was Vince Burns, who played center for the Z. N. P. against Jack Kelly. He made 12 points while Kelly, who made within two of equalling the score, Phil Kelly, the Chocolateer boss, playing forward, caged the ball for 10 and Randy Kiefer in the forward court for the Z. N. P. made the same tally. The only original Polish player named in the list of scorers is E. Wolnoski, guard, who tossed the leather through the hoop for three markers.

A large crowd of fans witnessed the game which presented plenty of thrills. At half-time the score stood in favor of the Chocolateers, 21-12, but the Z. N. P. shot ahead in the second session when its imported players got into the fray to bolster the offensive attack.

Preliminary to the feature the Fullers defeated the Winkky Girls, 19-10, Sally Gage starting for the victorious team by gleaming 11 points.

Maroon Prepares For Saugerties

Coach Kias is tuning his men up for the game with Saugerties High School Friday night on the Saugerties court. This is the return tilt for the one played here last Friday at the local school, when the Maroon won, 35-27. Of course, since this fray, Saugerties is expected to have improved, for the Cahill style of production has an unranny power of polishing up weak combinations into strong ones in a short time.

This does not mean, however, that the village team was weak in its engagement against Kingston. On the contrary, Cahill squad took everything it could and consequently a substantial lead held by Kingston throughout the game, to one not quite so substantial at the end of the battle.

Things might have been different if the local court was really like a basketball cage should be. The visitors last Friday are used to playing on a floor that has a high ceiling and not one representing a miniature golf course in obstacles to making shots. When the villagers get on their own court their offense will not be cramped and Kingston will be given a closer run for victory than it received here.

The Maroon defense was more effective. Saugerties always seemed to be tied in a knot as to whether the ball was passed or elevated, the formation, Kingston had a stopper for it. On the other hand Saugerties was swept off its feet continuously by Kingston's pet fast break.

one long pass and the bell rings up a two pointer. Saugerties checked this several times.

This meeting Friday will be the last for these two teams for this year, but it contains enough interest to captivate it a DUSO League game.

The first league game that Kingston plays, however, is against Newburgh, there, on Friday, January 20.

The Hebrews Play Albanians Tonight

At the Downtown Jewish Community Center tonight at 9 o'clock, the Hebrew-Americans will try to score their ninth consecutive victory at the expense of the Trinity M. E. Church team of Albany, not Kingston, in a game that is expected to present plenty of action and pack the hall with basketball fans.

The Trinity team, boasting of a good record, will come to Kingston with nine men: A. Krause, H. Krause, Betts, Morosky, Smith, Frutick, Garrison, Farold and Sterer. The three latter men formerly played with the Hilltops of Albany, who defeated the Hebrews.

Coach Irv Reuben, expecting the Trinity boys to give his men a tough battle, has them groomed for an exciting contest. He will use his regular lineup.

Preliminary to the spotlight attraction the Hebrew-American Girls will meet the Skippy Five at 7:45.

BILLIARDS

Landway Wins.
At the North Rondout Social Club Tuesday night, Leo Landway defeated John Swint, of the Raakoski pool parlor, 100-84. Landway had high runs of 14 and 13. His victory raised the North Rondout Club's standing to 3 against 6 for the Raakoski establishment in the tournament between the two pool parlors.

Tonight at 7:30 in the Raakoski parlor there will be a match between Steve Didzik of that place and "Rookie" Prussack of the North Rondout Club.

Teller Stars.
Before a large gathering of billiard fans, Julius Teller defeated Johnny Schrader, 100-42, in a match of the Kaetlich billiard tournament at the Wall street parlor Tuesday night. In winning, Teller, present city champion, performed the unusual feat for a local player of running off 25 balls in succession.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Clifton Quick meets Freddie Planthaber, who will endeavor to capture second place in the Kaetlich tourney by decisively defeating his rival.

Rudolph Breaks Even.

Erwin Rudolph broke even in Tuesday's blocks with Andrew Ponzi in their 1750-point exhibition pocket billiard match at the Strand Academy, New York city. Rudolph won the afternoon game, 125-2 in three innings with a high run of 124 and Ponzi took the evening match, 338-125, in 20 innings with a high run of 98. The score to date is 500 to 418 in favor of Rudolph.

When Tokens Were Issued

At two periods since the nation began to coin money, there has arisen a stringency of small coins, which made it necessary for business firms to supply their wants by the issue of copper tokens redeemable in legal money by the firms which issued them. The first period to witness such an issue came in 1867, when many business houses had prepared for their use copper tokens of the size of the large copper cent. The types of these tokens then, as usually, were of two principal classes, the one strongly political with devices and inscriptions giving vivid expression to the partisan slogans of the day, while the other bore simply the advertisement of the merchant who issued them. Again, in 1903, the dearth of small coins gave rise to an enormous issue of such tokens, at that time again in the module of the current bronze one-cent piece.

Recovering Civil Rights

If citizenship rights are forfeited by confinement in a federal prison, the President of the United States would have to restore them. If conviction in a state institution carried this penalty, the restoration would have to come from the governor of the state.

Spinny's Defeat Saugerties Five, To Meet Repealers

The Spinny Radio Five of Port Ewen fortified itself for its basketball war with the Morgan Repealers at Pythian Hall, Port Ewen, Thursday night by defeating the Saugerties Exchange Five at Glasco School gymnasium, Tuesday night, 45-22.

Despite the absence of their high-scoring center, Hank Krum, the Port Eweners surpassed their opponents in all departments of play and led in scoring throughout the contest. "Big" Van Eiten and Dan Joyce with 14 and 12 points respectively were high men for the Spinny's. Gabe Vosdick tallied 12 for the Exchange.

Proceeds of the game went to the Glasco School.

Thursday night on their home court, the Spinny's expect a more exacting struggle at the hands of the Morgan Repealers, against whom they will line up in the regular weekly basketball attraction at Pythian Hall, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Preliminary to the main go there will be a preliminary between the Spinny Aces and the Kingston Senecas, beginning at 7:30.

About the Folks

Dr. Gilbert P. Brown of Englewood Cliffs, N. J., was in Kingston today paying a friendly and professional call upon Dr. Christopher F. Keefe of 115 Pearl street.

Bring on the Beefsteak.
A scientist has discovered that a blue eye is not blue, but only appears so. Having disposed of the blue eye, science can now concentrate on its next great reform, the abolition of the black eye. From the scientific standpoint this is logically saved until the last, since the blue eye is useful and the black eye is strictly ornamental.

Installation at Stone Ridge Grange

Double funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Louise C. Wolven and Asa G. Wolven at the late home in New Salem. The Rev. Philip Goertz, pastor of the Port Ewen Reformed Church, and the Rev. M. H. Scharpies, pastor of the Port Ewen M. E. Church, officiated at the funeral services at the home and again at the grave. The home was crowded with relatives and friends from the neighboring communities, who came to pay their last respects to the deceased couple and to offer words of sympathy to the daughter and two sons, who mourn the loss of their parents. Beautiful floral tributes were sent to the home by the friends and neighbors of the family. The bearers were John Schulz, Edward Gummer, Ben Hendrickson, George Krudener, Matthew Van Tassel, Ralph Freer, Charles Beardsley and C. Lockwood. The interment was made in the family plot in the St. Remy cemetery.

Story of How the City Made a Dollar

Kingston, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1933.
 Mr. Editor, here's a little story your readers might like to read. It actually happened Monday afternoon and without notice or judgment of any of the principals I am passing it along as a bit of news or what have you. I'll entitle it "The City Makes a Dollar." About 2 o'clock Monday afternoon our door bell rang and I answered the ring. I was confronted by a very wet and bedraggled youth of 18 or 20, with brown eyes and a very likable face, old slouch hat, thin little coat and trousers and a pair of shoes that were well on the slide. He had a couple of these thingamajigs with three legs and a square board and a miniature picket fence around the board done in fancy colors. They are used for posted places in the front windows. He offered them to me for 25c apiece. My mother has several posted plants and things to put them in so I did not buy any. But I slipped him a dime for his salient and he was grateful. Well, an hour later I happened to be in a candy store that is near a school which is protected by a policeman at 3 o'clock every school day, when in walked the same youth only a bit wetter. He still had two thingamajigs. But he made no sale and went out and crossed the street, where a big 200 pound burber policeman, doing traffic duty, collared him, and must have inquired if he had a license to sell. The boy had none, evidently, because the policeman sent him up street with orders of some kind. The lad went up street, looking back several times. In about ten minutes' time when all the small children had disappeared the officer came into the store and made a call in the telephone booth and in a few minutes went back to his post to wait for the older children to be released from school. Not very long after the telephone call a touring car drove down with a civilian driver and another uniformed officer. The officers talked for a while and then the car drove away, leaving the policeman still on duty at the school. And here's the end of the story: Around 4 o'clock I dragged down street and met the bedraggled boy. He was soaking wet by this time, and he had no more plant stands to sell. I sought to warn him in case he had not done what the officer told him to do. I asked him if he had secured a license. He said he had. I enquired how much it cost and he answered that it cost him $1 and that it was good until midnight Monday. He said he worked all afternoon to sell 4 stands at 25c apiece and he paid $1 for a license. The last I saw of him he was mooching for home somewhere outside the city limits, cold, wet and broke. Well, the policeman done his duty as he saw it and cannot be blamed. We'll have to call it a tough break for the kid, and the city makes a dollar.

WE knew you've often wished for "a little Paris" in your automobile... for a haughty hood... for a car with custom tailoring and smart styling!

That's why our scouts spent many months in Europe, looking everywhere for "foreign touches." So note DeSoto's new "swank"—its interior richness—and note that it's a bigger car in every way—longer, wider and more powerful.

Inside... you can't miss DeSoto's "continental accent." Tufted doors, divan type upholstery, two-tone Circaussian walnut trim! We "borrowed" them from a $7000 French custom town car.

Under the hood... there are all sorts of new developments. Floating Power engine mountings! Automatic choke, free wheeling, hydraulic brakes! There's coincidental starting—no starter button at all.

But go look at this car... look at its thrifty prices and see what it does to you.

Purchases Made For Work Relief

Mayor Carey's latest statement, issued January 10, the following explanation in detail of city affairs as seen from his viewpoint is made:

The city needed a new snow plow for its main piece of snow removal equipment, the large Holt tractor. At a meeting with the councilmen, it was agreed that the snow plow should be removed from the Work Relief appropriation and so it was. The Board of Public Works carpenters then set to work and rebuilt the old plow which was used for the storm of yesterday.

Board of Public Works' Tools. The Board of Public Works is buying its own tools. Alderman Heiselein knows that for about the first time in December, Superintendent Van Kester gave him a list of what the board expected to need this year, and the alderman figured the price, as well as J. T. Johnson and Deyo Brothers.

Stone Crusher. The Board of Public Works has money in its budget to operate the quarry this year during the customary season. Every year the stone crushing plant shuts down in December and re-opens in April. The operation of the stone crusher at this time of the year offers a remunerative work relief project. About eighty men can be employed there. These men are crushing stone to be used in building the new concrete road on the Boulevard. Stone has to be crushed now and stored, otherwise the crusher could not turn it out fast enough in the summer and when summer comes the Board of Public Works needs the crusher for its own use. What can the eighty men at the crusher think about Heiselein trying to stop their work?

Sewers. The sewers of our city are clogged with roots in various parts. The cleaning of every sewer in the city is a wonderful work relief project. No Board of Public Works in the past ever attempted such work. They only provide enough money in the budget to meet emergency repairs, as when breaks occur. $9,000 was included in the 1932 budget for sewer repairs. We spent $16,571.18 because many unfortunate breaks occurred, especially the one on Main street near the Quigley apartments. It cost $1,500 to dredge the sewer outlets in the creek.

Road Issue Debit. It is an absolute untruth that there is a $27,000 deficit in the Board of Public Works account. The board issues for permanent pavement was exceeded before we realized it, due to the faulty accounting system, which I explained in my annual message. It was exceeded by $13,000, and when we absorbed the cost of finishing Lucas avenue and Fairview avenue, the amount was $27,000. At the November meeting of the Board of Public Works that fact was announced and carried in the newspapers. It is no secret.

Illegal Bonds. The Roadout Savings Bank holds a note, payable March 15, 1933, issued for a similar purpose. It was issued after the last administration, found it exceeded its bond issue of $150,000 raised for the pavement of Broadway and Albany avenue. If one is illegal to be issued, the other was issued illegally.

Unemployed. My regard is sincere for the unemployed and has been demonstrated. When I learned that the Work Relief Bureau ordered the work stopped and the offices closed, even to the Home Relief office, from my bed, where confined with the grip, I wrote an order that the work be reopened and the offices re-opened at once. When I get around again, funds will be provided to carry on so that our unemployed will be as well taken care of this winter as they were last winter.

Competent Authority. Mr. Heiselein and the Republican members of the common council all agreed to the retaining of Hawkins, Deland and Longfellow, attorneys and bond specialists. It was done because it was wished to be a party to the city having no more illegal paper. The rate of interest obtained signifies the value of their services.

Three years ago Mr. Heiselein's political party brought an engineering firm from New York city to look over our sewers and tell what was wrong with them. The city engineer's office at that time should have been professionally capable to render the report. The cost was $4,300.00. Out of last year's Board of Public Works' budget we had to pay the final installment of $1,000.00 on the contract. It should have been paid in 1930.

Hospital Appropriation. The cost of caring for our needy in hospitals was anticipated in last year's budget as $17,500.00. The actual cost was $19,620.00. Why raise more than $15,000.00? The exact cost can never be figured and $15,000.00 is a generous amount. It might not cost $8,000.00, so why burden the taxpayers unnecessarily this year?

Cordis Hose Truck. I would not cut out the $2,300.00 item for a new hose truck for Cordis Hose Company. The Republican Board of Fire Commissioners placed it in the budget and certified that a new truck was necessary. Essential.

services must be kept up. The Cordis Hose "boys" for twenty-two years have been my closest friends, numbered among them in early days were Senator John K. Cordis, Hon. Walter N. Gill, Hon. Walter P. Crane, Hon. Morris Black, Charles Lahl, Jr., John R. Tammany and others. I grew up under the guidance of such men who could instill in the minds of a boy many wonderful ideals. I was an officer of the company for sixteen years.

Water Department Projects. The Water Department had a number of projects, such as extending water mains on Tammany street, Smith avenue, Kierstead lane, Fidelity street, Arlington street, Miller's lane, Murphy street, Grand View avenue, Joy's lane, Forsyth Park road, Greenhill avenue, Merrill avenue, Larch street, and Second avenue. Out of the Work Relief appropriations, there was paid the Water Department the sum of $7,173.63. This provided city water for the people on the aforementioned streets, who otherwise might never have enjoyed the comforts of city water in their homes. I heartily approve of that expenditure also. Does Mr. Heiselein?

Work Relief Bureau Operation and Finances. The mayor is not a member of the Emergency Work Relief Bureau. Out of courtesy, the board holds their meetings in the mayor's office and he listens in and offers suggestions only when called upon.

The secretary of the bureau and its operating superintendent is Mr. Albert H. Shultz, a Republican of long standing. I recommended to the Bureau that he be employed and he was appointed. "Doc" Shultz has been on the job for about a year. He is the man who makes practically all the purchases, as required.

"Doc" as he is now known by at least 2,500 workmen is the man who sends the cards to go to work, and he sends them out to the deserving, according to investigation. He has a tough job and, in my estimation, is performing 100 per cent.

Fred Meeker is the bookkeeper in the office, another Republican. Fred operates the finances. He was first employed by the original board and I asked the board, I appointed, to retain him. They did so.

"Doc" and Fred are the main springs of the bureau. They can tell the story and, if told, would sound differently than the idea which Mr. Heiselein is trying to get across to the public.

Purchases and Audit. Every purchase and the cost thereof is and always has been known directly to Mr. Heiselein. The Relief Board neither audits nor pays its bills nor signs checks. This is done by the Auditing Committee of the Common Council, of which Mr. Heiselein is a member. Why did he not complain the past twelve months. A very complete history of the Work Relief program was filed with the Common Council last August.

As stated in my annual message, that it could be printed, and read by everyone.

New Work Program.

Every project was set up in detail, even to maps of the City Engineer's office, when the work relief program was submitted to the Common Council. Having a plan carefully worked out enabled the Work Bureau to know about how much it would cost to carry the plan to completion. The plan and all descriptive papers were attached to the request from the Work Relief Bureau to the Common Council for the appropriation of $100,000.00.

The money to pay comes from the taxpayers. What difference does it make whether Paul does Peter's work or Peter does Paul's work? The big job is proper administration, careful supervision and show results. We have performed. Judge Clearwater mentions that fact in his annual message.

Membership Dinner Held at Y. M. C. A.

Tuesday evening an interesting membership dinner was held at the local Young Men's Christian Association with an excellent delegation of members present. The meeting opened with the singing of "America" with Paul Egan leading, and Denay Blinn at the piano. P. H. Carey, acting as treasurer, then called upon N. H. Fuller, boys' secretary, to lead the invocation.

The supper, prepared and served by members from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., under the direction of their president, Mrs. George H. DuBois, was then served in splendid style. The menu consisted of creamed chicken, potatoes, mashed potatoes, peas, cabbage, salad, celery and onion, coffee, and molasses cake with marmalade.

At the close of the supper, Mr. Carey introduced the general secretary, Charles S. Schuchman, who spoke briefly upon the secretary's viewpoint of the association's work. He warned the members that if things were not being done as they wanted, that they should suggest improvements.

Dr. Julian I. Gifford, the speaker of the evening, was then introduced and spoke on "Creative Thinking." He traced the development of industry and changes in economics during the past few years, and showed how creative thinking coupled with faith, truth and justice had led to happiness and achievement, and how it was necessary for young men to now work as their fathers did. Genius had preceded better, quicker and easier methods of doing ordinary tasks. He defined imagination as the telescope of the observatory of opportunity. He showed how much benefit it was to "relax in sunshine" and "indulge in irregularity."

Taking away the necessity of doing everything at a specified time, Dr. Gifford's quick wit and amusing anecdotes, especially those from his own life, proved of interest to the men present, and at the close of his address they showed their approval of his address by a spontaneous rising applause.

The next feature of the program was the famed local prehistorical Fred H. Van Dusen. Fred proved well the old adage you "can't fool all the people all the time," for it is said several caught on one of the tricks he presented. However, his program was most entertaining, and was the final splendid touch the committee had arranged to send their guests away with a smile and despite the depression, in high spirits.

The committee in charge of the program for the evening consisted of P. H. Carey, chairman, Emil G. Boesneck, Jr., Frank Walters and Stanley M. Winne and James W. Scott.

It inserted in the ordinance that $100,000.00 will be used for wages and wages only, it is agreeable to me, but the issue then must be for $100,000.00. Politically, I would rather see a bond issue for $100,000.00 and keep the state refunds in the City Treasury. They would be treated as incoming revenue in the 1934 budget and keep the tax rate down $2.50 per thousand. It is a cheaper plan and less expensive if the program of the Work Relief Bureau is adopted.

Many Soups Served Away. It is impossible to determine the amount of profit that the government may derive from the issue of new postage stamps as the major source of such profit on any series is derived from those stamps not used but placed away in collectors' albums.

Diamond Stars Won't Suffer from Economy Policy

New York, Jan. 11 (AP).—Major League managers are definitely committed to a program of economy, but diamond stars will be rewarded in the usual fashion just the same.

With the possible exception of the St. Louis Cardinals, clubs in both American and National Leagues already have, or will, boost the salaries of star performers of the 1932 campaign. These increases, however, will be more than offset by slashes in the stipends of less brilliant players.

Sam Brandon, president of the Cardinals, already has announced his payroll will be "slashed, not trimmed," but even he has given no indication that every player on the roster will be required to take a cut.

Pirates Wages Reduced. The Pittsburgh Pirates have granted increases to Lloyd Waner and Larry French, restored Paul Waner's salary to its 1931 level, and boosted the figures on the checks they'll issue to such youngsters as Earl Grace, Tony Piet, Bill Swift and Floyd Vaughan, Washington, likewise has been generous in dealing with Monte Weaver, and it was understood the Senators would boost the salaries of both Al Crowder and Goose Goslin, secured from St. Louis Browns during the off-season.

Col. Jacob Ruppert probably will ask Babe Ruth to accept a cut of $5,000 or $10,000 and some of the other members of the New York Yankees' squad may be slightly cut.

General Reduction. All the other clubs likewise are planning on a general scaling-down of the player-payrolls but, at the same time, providing fatter checks for such deserving performers as Johnny Allen of the Yankees, Lon Warneke of the Cubs, male Alexander of the Red Sox, and many others.

The Philadelphia Athletics cut sharply into "overhead" when they sold Al Simmons, Mule Haas and Jimmy Dykes to the Chicago White Sox.

Led by Walt Foster, the Caseys conducted a devastating attack and rolled up a large lead in the first half. Through the efforts of Light, the Aces staged a strong comeback in the second half but not enough to overcome the lead which the Caseys had commanded.

MILLER HAS TO LOSE

WEIGHT FOR PAUL. Chicago, Jan. 11 (AP).—Tommy Paul of Buffalo, N. Y., today was just about ready for the defense of his National Boxing Association featherweight title at the Chicago Stadium Friday night, but his challenger, Freddie Miller of Cincinnati, still had some weight losing to do.

After his last serious workout yesterday Paul weighed 125 pounds and decided to do only light work today and tomorrow. The Cincinnati southpaw, however, scaled 127½ after a hard drill, and faced another stiff session today in order to get down to the division limit of 126 pounds.

Suggests New Fields for Aldermanic Debate

Editor Freeman:

Please permit me to suggest to the Common Council that they change the subject that has been debated by the council until the general public has become weary. I would suggest that for further amusement to the public and the members of the council they debate on the following: How old is Ann? Does water conceal from the bottom or the top? Has potter a crust? What makes more noise than one alderman? Free ferries for funerals? This would be more beneficial than the present holdup discussion now going on.

The WORLD of STAMPS

By QUINCY JAMES

King Carol, of Rumania, an enthusiastic collector, has his portrait on another stamp, issued in honor of the philatelic exhibition in Bucharest, held under his patronage.

At the exhibition, which just closed its doors, the public had an opportunity to admire the King's own collection, begun when he was a boy. Outstanding in it are two letters containing the first Moldavian stamps, issued about 75 years ago.

Fifty thousand of the jubilee stamps were issued. They are olive colored and sell for six plus five lei, the five to be donated to welfare organizations.

A New City
Italian stamp collectors made a rush for postmarks of a new city.

Littoria, inaugurated in December by Mussolini.

The city is on the main line between Rome and Naples, built by the Fascist government in the middle of the former Pontine marshes which have been reclaimed and converted to agriculture.

Life Work Defeated
A London collector's difficulties have brought to defeat an ambitious life work.

Thirty-five years ago F. R. Parker, stamp expert, set out to make 1,000 collections, each of 5,000 stamps.

He met with difficulties on the last stage of his "journey," and 2,000,000 British and Colonial stamps were put up for sale. They brought a total of £5,700 (approximately $33,500 at par).

It was said that never again would any man be able to accumulate the Victorian and Edwardian stamps of the British empire in such quantities as he had.

Inauguration Day Cachet
The commemorative Stamp Club of Washington, D. C., will issue a special cover cachet for Inauguration Day. It will bear a picture of the capitol dome and the legend, "37th Inauguration, Washington, D. C., March 4, 1933. Commemorative Stamp Club."

Collectors may send self-addressed, stamped covers to the club's headquarters, 1021 Tenth street, N. W. There will be a handling charge of one cent.

Design Protected
The design for a new issue of Brazilian stamps, in denominations of 150, 400 and 700 reis, may be changed because of newspaper protests.

The Indian-head design of Henrique Cavalleiro, one of Rio de Janeiro's artists, was victorious in a competition conducted by the department of posts and telegraphs. A group of notables composed the jury.

The newspaper O Globo led the protests, contending that a design commemorating Brazil's progress, rather than its aborigines, should be used.

Whether you speed or not—get an oil that can!

“TAKE IT from an old ‘engine doctor’—you need speed in your motor oil!

“Even if you never push your car past 40, you need Gulf Supreme—that 100-mile-an-hour motor oil! And there's no mystery why.

“Speed shows up oil. An oil that can do 60 may be fair enough. But an oil that can do 100 and like it, is a better, safer oil... at ANY speed you drive!

“It gives you plus lubrication. Extra resistance. Extra richness. Extra defense against wear and repairs. It couldn't take 100-mile-an-hour punishment if it didn't!”

Twice Gulf Supreme has proved itself a “fighter”... First, by lubricating a test motor at nearly twice the heat of the normal speeding engine—for 14 solid hours!

Second, by lubricating a Duesenberg racer roaring around the Indianapolis Speedway. In this Official AAA test, Supreme performed perfectly at speeds nearly as high as two miles a minute. An average speed for the one-hour, non-stop run of better than 100-miles-an-hour!

Take this tip! Change to Gulf Supreme now! It can take super-punishment... cut oil costs... pare down repair bills... lengthen your motor's life!
